There I was sitting in the mall on Friday the 13th. Exactly 1:03 pm. 5 minutes before I hear the big BOOM. Dark clouds filled the sky.

The only things you can hear is the loud thud thud thud of something against the building, and all people and the kids screaming. Everyone runs for shelter most even try to make it out to their car. I jumped under a table. Know there are only 7 people left. Someone left a 2 month old baby out in the open with no protection. I run to get her but then I fall and all the walls come down on me and I get stuck.

A few minutes later I get out to find out that I am the only one left. You can still hear the thuds but something is wrong now everything is spinning. I look up only to see a shadow. It starts getting closer and closer. I try to get away but I can't. I can now hear something but I don't know what it is. I look everywhere but I can't find anything or anyone. I scream but it only gets closer. That is when I hear a yell for help I look, no one is there then I look at the shadow to find out it was a person. Something kills them and tells me "You are next my dear."

I try to run but I can't. I try to hide but I can't. I yell for help nothing is there to help me. I look up all there is the sky. Still filled with dark Cloudes. I look a little closer to see I am in a toronado.

Then I see what looks like the thing that killed the other person. It starts to come towards me. I start to squirm and wiggle to try to escape. I can't.

I black out.

When I wake up nothing is there. It is no longer spinning or raining. I finally get out. But I notice the object that killed the other person. I start to run until I no longer can. I am trapped. Next thing I know I see the knife fly into my side.
